WILL CLOSE TOMORROW REINSTATE THE PUPILS

Only One More Day Remains in Second Liberty Loan Campaign—Have You Done Your Duty?

Tomorrow night the sun will set upon the last day of the second Liberty loan bond campaign, and the question uppermost in the minds of every one who desires to do his or her duty as an American citizen should be "Have I done my duty?"

It is reported that the German people in the fourth year of the war, have just subscribed to $3,107,000,000 additional to defeat the United States and its Allies.

Are you aware that only five percent of the American people subscribed for the first Liberty Loan bonds put out in this country? Isn't it pretty near time that America woke up?

Have we of the "Colonies" forgotten the immortal words of Patrick Henry, asks a well known writer. The real proof of a man's patriotism is what he does—not what he says. What are you doing, Mr. Reader, and what have you done?

Bonds may be purchased at either of the Alexandria Banks for one dollar down and one dollar per week, until paid for. It doesn't cost much in cash to be a real American, but it will cost considerable in the loss of the respect of your associates if it is known that you have not done your duty in backing up Uncle Sam and the brave boys who have gone to the front to offer their lives in defense of our country.

Liberty Bond Campaign Notes.
Up to half-past eleven o'clock this morning the Citizens National Bank of this city had sold $118,700 worth of the Second Liberty Loan bonds. The bank was apportioned a total of $201,000 of the bonds as its share at the beginning of the campaign, by the Federal Reserve bank of Richmond, and the Gazette is informed that the officials of the bank have decided to take and pay for the entire allotment after disposing of what they can.

Alexandria has another patriotic young American in the person of Master Ferdinand Charles Plitt, aged 13 years, who did "his bit" for Uncle Sam this morning by going to the Citizens National bank and purchasing a fifty dollar Liberty bond with money which he had earned with his own hands. Prior to that time he had been saving up his nickels and dimes and depositing them to his credit in the Postal Savings department at the city post-office. Another interesting fact is that the lad's father, Mr. Frederick L. Plitt whose place of business is at 705 King street, was born in Alsace, under the German Government, and that the boy's Uncle (his father's brother) was a Colonel in the Kaiser's army and died in the German trenches about two years ago. No one will attempt to say that Mr. Plitt and his young son are not real, patriotic Americans, today, however. The country needs more of the same kind.

WOMEN BUYING BONDS

Sixty Thousand Dollars Worth of Liberty Bonds Have Been Bought by Alexandria Ladies.

The Gazette was informed this morning by Miss Lucy M. Graves, one of the members of the ladies' committee in charge of the Liberty Loan bond sale in this city, that 382 women of Alexandria have purchased $60,000 worth of the bonds since the campaign started.

Fine record, ladies, and greatly to your credit. Keep it up until you get the other $40,000 and make it $100,000 in all, the full amount apportioned to you. You will never have cause to regret it. Remember, you are not giving the money away, simply lending it to Uncle Sam, who will pay it all back with interest.

Miss Graves asks the Gazette to get to some of the husbands that would be a mighty fine thing for them to buy a bond in the name of their wives and thus help the good cause in that way.

Over Mr. Alexandria, and his wife a surprise in the name of those Liberty bonds. Good and keep the money at the same

Striking Scholars in Public Schools Appear Before Officials in Auditorium of High School.

Most of the boys and girls who left the public schools on Monday, the 15th instant, resumed their studies this morning, to the evident gratification of their parents, many of whom had no inkling of the strike movement recently inaugurated in the schools until it was over with.

The City School Board held a special meeting on Wednesday night for the purpose of receiving a delegation from the Parents-Teachers' Association. The latter deplored the action of the pupils, and the School Board concluded to allow the pupils to return provided they would meet the board, the city superintendent and faculty in the auditorium of the high school building yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock and make suitable apologies for their conduct and guarantee there will be no repetition of their offense.

The members of the board appeared on the stage of the auditorium at the hour designated accompanied by the city superintendent. The faculty also appeared. Nearly all the pupils who went out were on time. City Superintendent Sweeney, at the request of chairman Bradshaw, explained the course adopted by the board, and when the boys and girls were asked if they were ready to subscribe to the terms set forth, they all with one accord held up their hands. The pupils subsequently advanced and signed the following paper:

"The children who walked out will be allowed to return to the school on Friday, October 26th, conditioned upon their making a suitable apology to the Board, Superintendent and Faculty. Pupils admitted under these conditions shall be subject to all the rules and regulations heretofore and hereafter to be imposed by the board. Any violations of such rules and regulations will subject these pupils to immediate dismissal."

CHARGED WITH MUTINY

Two Members of the Crew of the Steamer St. Johns Taken in Custody by U. S. Marshal.

The steamer St. Johns, which for several years was used as an excursion steamer between Washington, Alexandria and Colonial Beach, was commandeered by the government during the early summer and ordered to proceed to New York. The steamer returned to the Potomac this week, when the captain turned over Barton Hayton and Oscar Lindblott to Deputy U. S. Marshal Schoeni of this city upon the charge of mutiny upon the high seas. The two men were placed in the station house here. They will be committed to jail by the U. S. Commissioner where they will remain until the next session of the U. S. District Court. The details of the mutiny could not be learned.

In the Police Court this morning a negro known as "Squire" Brown was fined $50 for carrying concealed weapons.

John Roles and Albert Harris, charged with being drunk, were fined $5 each.

Samuel Littlejohn, colored, charged with disorderly conduct, was dismissed.

Six boys, charged with disorderly conduct, were turned over to their parents for correction. The youngsters had been annoying dwellers in an apartment house by pulling bells and blowing whistles.

NEWS OF THE DAY

How for more than four hours an American freighter fought a German submarine to a standstill, answered her shot for shot and shell for shell, and then, crippled and losing her battle, was saved by an American patrol boat which, dashing up, put the U-boat to rout, was told in dispatches reaching Washington last night from France. The ship was one of the Luckenbach liners, which is not known. She is identified merely as the Luckenbach in official dispatches. The battle occurred on October 19.

In a conference with Secretary of War Baker yesterday, Ignace Paderevski, the famous pianist who has been appointed leader of the Polish national movement in this country, informed the secretary that there were 150,000 unutilized Poles in this country who wish to offer their services as a unit to the United States in its war against Germany.

Two bits of evidence that Germany realizes how difficult it will be for her to re-enter the world markets after the war, were produced last night by the Department of Commerce. Germany, according to this evidence, is mobilizing capital in great syndicates of kindred businesses, and encouraging and placating the laboring classes with higher wages.

The United States yesterday went to the aid of the Italian war machine by diverting 1,000,000 tons of American shipping to the needs of Italy. This will mean about twenty-five vessels, according to Chairman Edward N. Hurley, of the Shipping Board. All of them will be speedy steel ships, and will be chartered to the Italian government for use as it sees fit.

"It would give me great pleasure to stick a knife into President Wilson at the first opportunity," said Ewald Pietsch to a number of his fraternity brothers, who caused his arrest in Chicago yesterday. Pietsch is the son of Dr. Karl Pietsch, professor of romance, language and philology at Chicago University. His bond was fixed at $10,000.

Stepping from behind a long line of freight cars into the path of a swiftly moving street engine, Hugh Callahan, aged 32, was instantly killed yesterday morning in the yards of the Washington Terminal Company. Callahan was chief signal inspector of the Washington Terminal.

The French chamber of deputies yesterday passed a vote of confidence in the government 288 to 137. The reorganized cabinet appeared before the chamber of deputies yesterday afternoon. In view of the cabinet resigned, no ministerial declaration was made.

The annual memorial service of the Alexandria Council of Fraternal Americans will be held at the First Baptist church on Sunday evening next at 8 o'clock at which time a special sermon will be delivered by the pastor, Rev. Dr. E. B. Jackson.

William Downs, of 514 south Fairfax street, stationed at Camp Lee, Petersburg, came home last night to remain over Sunday. He reports that he is enjoying camp life and says that Uncle Sam is certainly taking good care of his boys who are in the army.

The colored citizens of Alexandria gave a very enjoyable reception at the Shiloh Baptist church last night to the colored drafted men who are to leave for camp Lee, Petersburg, on Sunday next. Patriotic songs were sung and several patriotic addresses were delivered by local speakers, a very pleasing address being delivered by First Lieutenant Campbell C. Johnson, an Alexandria boy, and a recent graduate of the Officers' Training Camp at Ft. Des Moines, Iowa. A farewell will be given the drafted men Sunday, when they leave for camp. The colored citizens are perfecting arrangements to escort the men to the Union Station where they will entrain for Camp Lee, Petersburg.

Bombs Hit German Town.

London, Oct. 26.—An official statement on aerial operations issued last night reads:

"Last night factories and railway communications in the vicinity of Saarbrücken were attacked by our airplane squadrons with excellent results. More than three and one-half tons of explosives were dropped on the Burbach works, just west of Saarbrücken, by naval machines. The damage caused was considerable and many fires were observed."

"Three thousand three hundred and thirty-five pounds of explosives were dropped on railway stations, junctions, goods sidings in and around Saarbrücken by another squadron. Many direct hits were obtained, resulting in numerous explosions."

"One train proceeding to Saarbrücken received a direct hit from a big bomb and was destroyed. A total of five tons of explosives was dropped by us."

Mme. Petrova Tonight.

Corsica, the little island in the Mediterranean which gave birth to the greatest military genius of the world, Napoleon Bonaparte, is the historic background for "To the Death," the five act Metro wonder-play starring Mme. Petrova, which will be seen at the Richmond Theatre tonight.

Great pains have been taken and no amount of expenditure has been spared to reproduce with absolute fidelity the island's wonderful scenes of rare natural beauty.

"Her Soul's Inspiration" is the title Bluebird Photoplays have given to the screen-version of "Mary Keep Your Feet Still," to be shown at the Surprise theatre tonight with Ella Hall as the dancing girl. There is a gripping plot in this five act play, and human interest is aroused by the courage and fighting spirit of a little orphan displays in her fight against adversity.

AVIATOR DIES OF INJURIES.

While Flying at Mobile Fair, Miss Judges Distance to Ground and Hits With Terrific Force.

Mobile, Ala., Oct. 26.—O. E. Williams, aviator died last night in a hospital from injuries received when he fell with his airplane yesterday afternoon at the Gulf Coast fair grounds here.

Williams had ascended more than 2,000 feet, and in descending in the race track before the crowded grandstand, misjudged the distance to the ground. The machine struck with terrific force, and the aviator was hurled from his seat. His neck was broken.

Williams's wife was in the grandstand and witnessed the accident. Williams was driving an airplane, he constructed here last April. He was a graduate of the Curtiss aviation school, and came to Mobile from Michigan.

U. S. TROOPS ASTONISH ENEMY.

Captured Zeppelin Crews Didn't Know Sammies Were in France.

Washington, Oct. 26.—The presence of American troops in France caused great astonishment to the crews of the Zeppelins L-49 and L-50, brought down by the French last Saturday while returning from a raid on England.

Official dispatches to the State Department said the prisoners declared that not one of them knew of the landing of any American expeditionary forces.

Salt Water and Potomac Oysters. J. Brill, No. 2, King street. Phone 3677.

Three Divisions of Invaders Virtually Wiped Out by Allies' Latest Drive.

With the French Armies in the field, Oct. 26.—With every hour today there grew evidence that General Petain's stroke on the Aisne had inflicted on Germany her greatest defeat of 1917.

Demoralized by the trip hammer blows of the great French war machine, the Germans today were abandoning their guns in an effort to retreat across the marshy Ailette valley and the Aisne and Oise canal.

Fighting with the desperation of men who know they are beaten, the enemy gave way for the French wedge until today it had been jammed more than three miles into the pivotal base of the German line curving around the western extremity of the Chemin Des Dames.

Total captures of men reached more than 9,000. More than 100 guns have been taken so far. Several hundred trench mortars and machine guns are not included in this count.

Judging from prisoners' stories and an estimate of the mangled heaps of German dead, the German losses in Tuesday's drive and Thursday's acceleration may be conservatively estimated at equivalent to three whole German divisions, approximately 45,000 men. In proportion to the size of the battle front—seven miles—this is the heaviest loss which Germany has ever sustained in a single series of military operations since the disastrous German retreat last spring.

Not only that, but the French victory is a cumulative one. Poilus now dominate the entire Ailette valley. Their hold on the observatories here practically renders untenable the German lines along the northern edge of the bloody Chemin Des Dames all the way toward Craonne, far to the east.

CRUTCHFIELD DETERMINED

Richmond Police Justice Will Not Swerve From Position in Anti-Liquor Controversies.

Police Justice Crutchfield of Richmond, is standing pat on his ruling that the federal authorities have jurisdiction over the state in cases involving the importation of whiskey into Richmond from a place without the state. He made that clear yesterday when he and Edward B. Dunford, special counsel for the Virginia prohibition department, swapped views on the question before court yesterday morning.

"I intend to insist upon you sending the next transportation case up to the grand jury just as I insisted Wednesday, when you turned a similar case over to the federal agents," said Mr. Dunford. "You may insist, I retorted the judge, but it will do no good. I propose to stick to my ruling." "But that is not the right way to decide it," persisted the prohibition lawyer.

"Who is judge here, you or I?" queried the judge, flaring up. "I'll have you to understand that I am." Before the words were out of the judge's mouth, Mr. Dunford had withdrawn, to the outer waiting room of the court, evidently not desiring to argue the matter further. The judge stated later that he heard it said Wednesday night that he was "flopping" on the question, but he wanted it distinctly understood that such was not the case. He was just as determined as ever to stand firm.

That a person cannot be placed in jeopardy twice for the same offense is the position taken by the judge in the cases at issue. So says the constitution, and he believes when he has the constitution with him he cannot be shaken.

Prisoners would naturally prefer being tried in the federal court where a jail sentence is not compulsory. This seems to be the milk in the cecanaut.

Justice Crutchfield says that the fact that a Hanover magistrate gave an opinion directly opposite to his in a "transportation" case, holding that the state and federal courts had concurrent jurisdiction, did not affect him in the slightest. He had made up his mind and he could not be swayed by any country magistrate.

PUPILS RETURN TO STUDIES

Nearly all the pupils of the public schools who abruptly left their desks on Monday, the 15th instant, appeared in the auditorium of the high school building yesterday afternoon for the purpose of accepting the terms of the City School Board in order to resume their studies today. Only a few were missing from the seventy-odd who went on strike.

According to the action of the School Board at a special meeting last Wednesday night, the refractory pupils were to apologize for their overt action, the seriousness of which they did not seem to comprehend. They gathered in the northwest end of the auditorium yesterday afternoon and held up their hands when requested to do so, in order to signify their acceptance of the terms prescribed by the school authorities.

It is hoped that Alexandria will experience no further annoyance from these young people. Should there, however, be any "King Bees," among them who may have the temerity in the future to fan into flame any spirit of discontent, it is hoped the more docile of the pupils will "cut" such companions and isolate them as much as possible. The terms subscribed to yesterday afternoon are positive, and should they be violated in any manner, expulsion will surely follow.

According to the present laws of the state of Virginia great consideration must be shown juvenile law-breakers in first offenses. The members of the City School Board have acted upon the spirit of those laws. They had never before been called upon to rule upon such an issue as a strike in the schools. It is hoped they never will again.

The Gazette several days ago had an article on this page on obedience. We repeat what we then said. We will add, however, one suggestion: A great English scholar known as Samuel Smiles wrote a book bearing a title in four letters—"DUTY." The book necessarily dealt with "Obedience." It is an interesting and instructive production abounding in anecdotes, and would make an excellent text book for schools.

Before the battle of Cape Trafalgar, Admiral Nelson hoisted that famous signal, "England expects every man to do his duty." Our country expects every man to do his duty at this critical period in our history. We also expect every child who has reached the age of responsibility to do his or her duty.

ONE DAY MORE.

Only one day remains in which to make certain that $5,000,000,000 which the Government has asked the American people to subscribe for war purposes. The minimum amount is already passed, but there is still a big gap between that and the maximum.

There is no end of reasons why every loyal resident of the United States should strain every nerve to help Uncle Sam in this crisis. First and foremost is the fact that this is your country which has done much for you and which you should love no less dearly than the young fellows who are prepared to give up their lives to defend its ideals. If you cannot fight in the trenches you can at least support generously those who will soon be doing so.

Remember that the Government does not ask you to give it anything. It is not planning to deprive you of any hard-earned savings. It is simply asking you to lend it, from your surplus money enough to carry on the war effectively. It will pay you a fair return, and the security is the best in the world. Buy a Liberty bond before tomorrow's sunset, and show your love of country and your faith in the soldiers and sailors who are battling for you. Buy, and buy again, and help to win the victory of civilization and righteousness over barbarism and brutality.

STEPHEN TIMNEY DEAD

Irish Shoemaker Passes Away Suddenly in a Shop in Washington Yesterday Afternoon.

Stephen Timney, who had conducted a cobbler's shop in Alexandria for several years, dropped dead in the shop of George Jennings, 1252 Pennsylvania Avenue, southeast, Washington, yesterday afternoon. The deceased had suffered from heart trouble for some time. He was 72 years old.

The career of Stephen Timney would furnish material for a book. He was born in Dublin, and at an early age was apprenticed to a shoemaker. Before reaching manhood he repudiated the injunction, no suter ultra crepidam (let the shoemaker stick to his last) and became a steward on the ocean steamer Cameronia, of the Anchor Line, and followed the sea for several years. Having been injured in an accident, he located in New York, where he resumed his original calling.

Timney was of a restive nature, and he removed from one city to another, and shortly after his civil war joined the Fenian Brotherhood which made Don Quixotic descent upon Canada. He subsequently worked at shoemaking in many cities of the United States. While he was in Baltimore he was shanghaied and made to serve for a while on an oyster boat in Chesapeake Bay.

He later took up his abode in Washington, but soon grew tired of that city, and about twelve years ago he rented a house on Fairfax street, near King street, where he worked at cobbling. His business increased gradually, and he soon had all the work he could handle. His spirit of restiveness, however, again set him adrift, and after moving from place to place in this city, he left for Washington, but soon reappeared at St. Asaph, but about the time he fixed his sign in position, he concluded to return to Alexandria. His health in the meantime had declined and the weight of years was telling upon him. He eventually became a fixture at the corporation farm, conducted by Joshua Sherwood, but after remaining there about a month he took French leave and proceeded to Washington. He had obtained employment in Jennings's shop when death overtook him. Timney leaves a widow, his second wife. He is also survived by several children by his first wife, who live in New York.

CHILD ROASTS ON STOVE.

Falls Through Radiator Hole Into Hot Water and Tips Onto Range.

Williamsport, Pa., Oct. 25.—The infant son of John W. Propet, of Point township, Northumberland county, was roasted to death Wednesday. The child, which was just learning to walk, eluded his mother as she was busy in an upstairs room. Tumbling into another apartment, the baby fell through an open radiator hole landing in a kettle of boiling water on the kitchen range below. The kettle upset and the child rolled out on the hot stove. The busy mother was ignorant of the tragedy until the odor of burning flesh attracted her attention.

OBJECT TO THE GUARDS

Alexandria County Residents Hold Mass Meeting and Adopt Resolutions Against Colored Soldiers.

At a mass meeting of the citizens of Alexandria County, Virginia, held at the Court House of said county, on the 23rd day of October, 1917, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, experience has demonstrated that where negro soldiers have been placed as sentinels or guards in the south, it has in numerous cases resulted in serious casualties and breaches of the peace, as well as producing friction between the residents of the community and such soldiers on guard; and

Whereas, this has been recently demonstrated in the City of Washington where a negro sentinel shot and killed an aged carpenter entering upon the performance of his duties as such; and

Whereas, these negro sentinels were removed by those in authority the day after this tragedy, upon complaint of the citizens of Washington; and

Whereas, there are now negro sentinels on guard at the entrance to Alexandria County at each end of the Highway and Aqueduct bridges—the only gateways to the south from the National capital—and at other places in said county where such sentinels come in contact with our citizens; and

Whereas, the public press states that it is the intention of the War Department to assemble at Fort Myer, in this County, large numbers of negro troops for training as officers or soldiers, or both. Therefore be it resolved,

First—That it is the opinion of citizens of this County in mass meeting assembled, that there is grave danger to the peace of the community and to the life of its citizens if negro sentinels and guards are placed at such important places where so much discretion is required as at the various entrances to the County; and that the assembling of large bodies of negro troops in the County would tend to disorder in our midst; and

Second—That the Secretary of War be requested to order that negro troops be no longer used as sentinels or guards in this County and that masses of negro troops be not assembled in this County for any purpose; and

Third—That a copy of this Resolution be sent to the Governor of Virginia, the Secretary of War, to each of the senators and members of the House of Representatives of the State of Virginia, and that copies be handed to the press of Washington and Alexandria county.

J. I. Frazer, of Lynch's, Campbell county, committed suicide in a Lynchburg hotel Tuesday night. He shot himself, but his body was not discovered until Wednesday morning. Frazer lay on the bed and fired a shot from a revolver into his right temple.

GUILTY OF ASSAULTING GIRL.

Former Auditor of Coal and Coke Convicted in Elkins.

Elkins, W. Va., Oct. 26.—William C. Cook, former traveling auditor of the Coal and Coke Railway Company, was found guilty yesterday afternoon of assaulting with intent to kill Miss Marie Harwood, an Elkins society girl, on October 13, 1915. The trial lasted four days. Cook has not yet been sentenced.

The assault, which, it is alleged, was prompted by jealousy, was committed at the home of Miss Harwood after she and Cook had attended the movies together. Cook slashed Miss Harwood's throat from ear to ear with a pocket knife, but after several weeks she recovered and was married to B. J. Pettigrew, an attorney, of Charleston, W. Va.

Prescott, Wis., Oct. 26.—Private W. Mozet, said to be a member of Company L, Thirty-six United States Infantry, shot Charles Garland, Marshal of the village, to death yesterday when Garland sought to arrest him on a charge of desertion. Mozet then attempted to take his own life, but the bullet from his automatic pistol inflicted only a slight wound.

Buy Those Bonds Today

We didn't want to get into this war—we were literally dragged into it—but now that we are in, deep down in the heart of every red-blooded American is a grim and mighty determination to see it through to the finish.

These boys who march away every day headed for the cantonments and those sturdy fellows already in France are your boys, and right now you have thoroughly made up your mind to do every possible thing to help bring them back home safe and sound. You want to feel that they are armed and fed and supported better than any other army in the World, and if need be you will make any sacrifice necessary.

Now it is fine and patriotic to cheer as they march away, and fine and patriotic to fly a flag or paste a poster on your automobile, but that isn't enough. Getting right down to the meat of things, something else is required besides cheers and bursts of enthusiasm, and that something is —MONEY.

Money to secure every modern invention, every device, every support and every comfort for this army which is prepared to make the supreme sacrifice if necessary. The good folks back home—the good folks whose hearts are in the right place—are going to lend the money.

The quicker it is done the smaller will be the casualty lists, and a rousing big-subscription to the Second Liberty Loan will take some of the fight out of the enemy. You're going to do it; all you need is a little rousing. You're going to lend your money to your Government, and you're going to do it today.
